

 Proposed Mission

Together We Can improve the overall health of the residents of central Michigan including the counties of Arenac, Clare, Gladwin, Isabella, Osceola and Roscommon by preventing and controlling the incidence of disease and ill health.

Information Compiled from the Central Michigan Public Health Summit

What It Is

Introduction

Story of the Public Health Summit

Includes stakeholder groups

- ✓ Residents of the central Michigan health district
- ✓ State, county, and local government officials
- ✓ Tribal nation representatives
- ✓ Members of the academic community and public school systems
- ✓ Representatives from businesses in the health care, transportation, restaurant, and other types of industries
- ✓ Members of non-government organizations, including community organizations

Introduction

Introduces County Health Rankings 2010

County	Ranking out of 82
Isabella	42 nd
Osceola	45 th
Roscommon	70 th
Arenac	72 nd
Gladwin	77 th
Clare	82 nd

Key Issues

Participants identified issues in the areas of:

- Health Care Delivery System
- Nutrition
- Education/Knowledge
- Environment
- Behavior
- Poverty/Economy

County Notes Sections

Focused upon:

- Health Issues
- Solutions/approaches to addressing the issues

Some counties have more than one set of information

Final Sections

Acronyms

Acknowledgements

Information Compiled from the Central Michigan Public Health Summit

What It Isn't

- Perfect
- Easy reading
- Attendee names and potential champions have not been included

Value

Information collected from a large group of stakeholders and the majority of stakeholder groups

Issues and solutions provide a starting point for filling out the framework for health improvement plans

Basis for Health Improvement Plan's goals and objectives

County Health Rankings Information for the Central Michigan Health District Counties: Arenac, Clare, Gladwin, Isabella, Osceola, and Roscommon

What It Is

1. Overview

Includes population of the central Michigan Health District: 187,343 distributed across the six counties as follows.

County	Population	Percent of total
Arenac	16,361	19%
Clare	30,312	16%
Gladwin	25,920	14%
Isabella	66,778	36%
Osceola	22,930	12%
Roscommon	25,042	13%

2. Central Michigan Health District County Health Rankings

One table for each county

Health Ranking Categories

- Health Outcomes - mortality and morbidity
- Health Factors
 - ✓ Health behaviors – six indicators
 - ✓ Clinical care – five indicators
 - ✓ Social and economic factors – eight indicators
 - ✓ Physical environment – four indicators

County Health Rankings Tables

Columns include:

- County value for each indicator
- County Health Rankings 2010 target value
- Overall Michigan value
- Percent Variation from County Health Rankings 2010 Target Value
- Percent Variation from overall Michigan value
- Rank out of the 82 included Michigan counties

3. County Rankings Summaries

Values for all six counties

Percent deviation from nationwide targets

Percent deviation from overall Michigan values

Appendices

- A. County Health Rankings Categories Glossary
- B. Structure of the County Health Rankings Model
- C. Basis of Target Values
- D. County Health Rankings 2010: Measures, Data Sources and Years of Data

County Health Rankings Information for the Central Michigan Health District Counties

What It Isn't

- County values do not include error margins
- To be treated as "written in stone"

Value

- Assists in identifying areas for further consideration in health improvement efforts
- Provides summaries of variation between counties
